

PACIFIC DESK

The Pacific range is our executive desk range. The straight desk, with included modesty panel as part of the structure, is available in 180 and 200 cm and in a wide range of colours. With its modern and minimalist design, it is a perfect choice for direction offices but can also be used as a low reception desk for anyone looking for an alternative to high reception counters.

The dimensions are as follows:

- 180 version: 1800 x 900 x 750
- 200 version: 2000 x 900 x 750

All panels are made of E1 standard chipboard. E0 is possible on request. This means very low formaldehyde content or even 0.
